

Belgium's Shoah or Holocaust

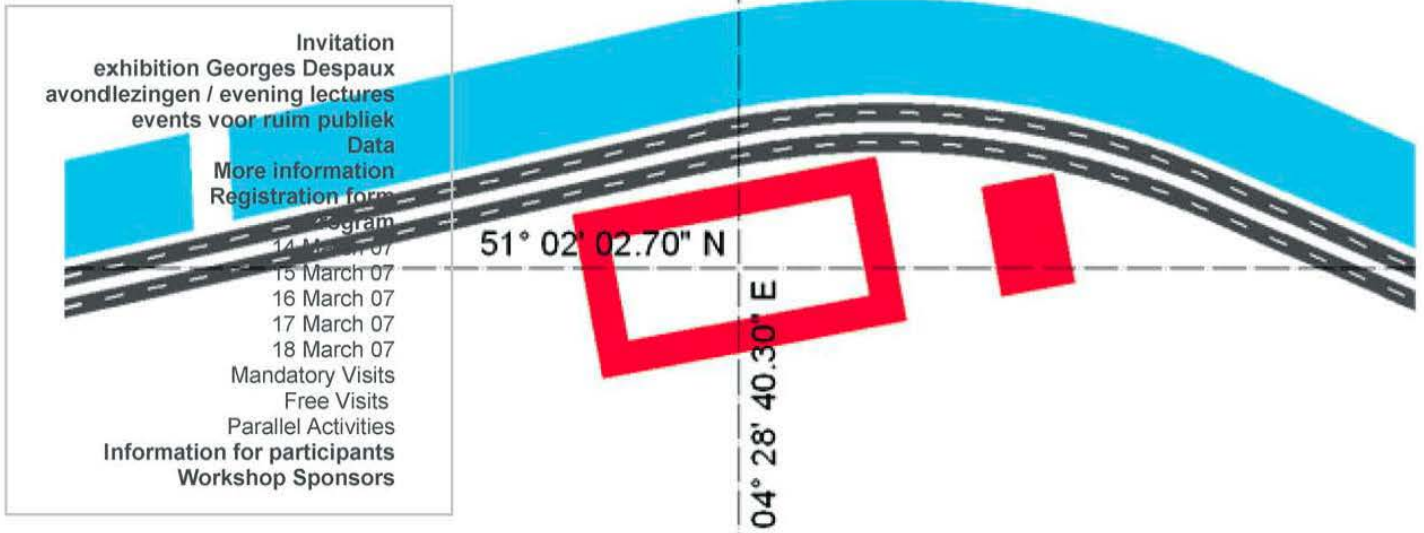

Between 1942 and 1944 the Nazis used the 'DOSSIN KAZERNE' as an assembly camp, transporting 25.484 Jews and 352 gypsies from here to Auschwitz-Birkenau.

"Dossin-Mechelen: Thinking the future of symbolic places", brought together around 140 master students in Architecture from over 20 European universities, around 40 tutors and visiting professors, and a series of lecturers on March 13-18, 2007.

DOSSIN KAZERNE MECHELEN - FINAL PLENARY SESSION - 18 maart 2007

L - R : Rik Vanmolkot (Moderator), Freek Persyn (Architect -Docent), Dirk Coopman (Architect - Docent), Dag Boutsen (Architect - Directeur Sint Lucas) Marcel Smets (Ir. Stedenbouwkundige - Vlaams Bouwmeester), Bart Verschaffel (Prof. dr. - filosoof), Guy Van Kerckhoven (Prof. dr. - Filosoof)

FRIDAY 16TH OF MARCH

start end Description | venue | organisation, speaker or moderator

08:30 10:00 WORKSHOP 3A
Lamot 'Mechelen Centraal'
tutors (*)

10:15 10:15 BREAK
Lamot 'Mechelen Centraal'

10:15 13:00 WORKSHOP 3B
Lamot 'Mechelen Centraal'
tutors (*)

+ GUIDED FREE VISITS IN SMALL GROUPS
Mechelen

13:00 14:00 LUNCH
Scheppers 'Old Refectory', Melaan 16-24

14:00 17:00 WORKSHOP 3C
Lamot 'Mechelen Centraal'
tutors (*)

+ GUIDED FREE VISITS IN SMALL GROUPS
Mechelen

17:00 18:30 FIRST REVIEW
Lamot 'Mechelen Centraal'
moderator Dag Boutsen
arch. Tony Van Nuffelen & Ivo Vanhamme; Dirk Coopman; Nel Janssens ; Marc Godts & other invités

18:30 19:45 EVENING MEAL
Youth Hostel

20:00 -- FREE ACTIVITIES IN MECHELEN
Inner City of Mechelen